

Mandoki Soulmates - WAKE UP!

Verse 1:

strange days of paranoia blues
back to the roots where I was born it heals me up where I am torn and the river of the truth in the soul of my people and it's running like the blood in my veins

and it keeps me alive
the wings of an eagle
the faith of a rebel's son spirit of freedom
it helped me survive

Pre-Chorus:

*I want to stand up and shout out
so now the whole world can hear
that history is a mystery
I want to sail with the music, I want to cross 7 seas
there's nothing left to fear*

Chorus 1:

Wake Up!
Last call!
Don't forget your first revolution!
Dark hearts!
Free minds!
You gotta stop your self-prostitution!
From the old!
To the new!
There is no space for illusion
Fresh eyes!
Watch out!

Wake Up!
Last call!
Don't forget your first revolution!
Dark hearts!
Free minds!
You gotta stop your self-prostitution!
From the old!
To the new!
There is no space for illusion
Fresh eyes!
Just Watch out!
And Wake Up Now

Ad Lip: And Wake Up Now

Verse 2:

I strolled through the desert it was made of lies a dreamer's kingdom turned to sand music is the answer, no alibis against all odds with the boys in the band

Pre-Chorus:

*I want to stand up and shout out
so now the whole world can hear
that history is a mystery
I want to sail with the music, I want to cross 7 seas

Chorus 2:

Wake Up!
Last call!
Don't forget your first revolution!
Dark hearts!
Free minds!

You gotta stop your self-prostitution!
From the old!
To the new!
There is no space for illusion
Fresh eyes!
Just Watch out!
And Wake Up Now
